

SLS SERVICES

SPECIALIST RECRUITMENT

SLS Services has offered specialist recruitment solutions to the Pharmaceutical industry since 1991.

An accredited REC Member, we act professionally and ethically in placing permanent and contract staff within the UK and Europe.

We are based in Horsham, West Sussex, UK and have a supportive team of committed recruitment consultants, who all offer expertise in niche industry areas and can therefore provide the highest level of service, both to jobseekers and to hiring companies. A specific area of our expertise is in Medical Communications. Our clients, who include Medical Education, Healthcare Advertising, Digital & PR agencies and the communication departments of Pharmaceutical, Biotech companies & CROs, turn to us to resource staff at all levels and across all disciplines including:

Medical Writers ~ Scientific Directors ~ Editors ~ Copy writers ~ Planners
Client Service Account Handlers ~ Project Managers ~ Events Specialists Healthcare Analysts ~ Market Access ~ HEOR ~ PRI ~ Executive to Director Level

We focus on quality over quantity. To achieve this we make sure we understand our clients' needs, how their businesses work and the people they like to hire. With a vast network of Medical Communications contacts, a considerable advertising network that will give your roles maximum exposure in the marketplace, and the proactive nature of our consultants, we are ideally placed to become your Medical Communications recruitment partner.
